Hello Williamsburg UMC Family and Friends,

Spring is here! At least it feels like that today, and when you read this...who knows? The weather has been like that, changing day to day, and even changing throughout the days. The predictable unpredictability is something we have come to expect in Northern Michigan.

Other things are much more predictable: The Annual Conference will be the last week of this month, and they are yet again hosting it in our backyard at the Grand Traverse Resort. This is the time where United Methodists from throughout our Conference (the State of Michigan) gather to worship, plan and vote on items that affect us. It is also the only time ordained clergy get to “go to church” at the place of their membership.

As for Williamsburg, we will be having a speaker from the Jubilee House visiting on Sunday May 10, which is also Mother’s Day. And then on Sunday May 17, after the service we will be having a brief AD Council meeting, and then our Books Study looking at our Wesleyan heritage. On May 24, we will celebrate Pentecost, which is the end of Eastertide and marks the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Blessings to You All,

Rev. Matthew Chapman
