Benediction:
Beloved, now we are the saints of God, and it does not yet appear what we shall be. But we know when we let Jesus reign in our hearts, we will appear to others as a reflection of God’s Son. We leave this place determined to imitate Christ.

On this All Saints Sunday, we gather to remember teachers and storytellers who made God’s stories come alive for us.
We give thanks!
We remember choir members, praise bands, organists, and all the musicians who sang and played your praises.
We give thanks!
We remember preachers and lay leaders who led our worship through the years.
We give thanks!
We remember parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and siblings who showed us how to hold fast to the faith.
We give thanks!
We remember our church families—this one and others we have loved. We remember all those who have been a part of this faith family with whom we grew our faith and our love for God and neighbor.
We give thanks!
We remember our ancestors in the faith whose courage enables us to be here today.
We give thanks for the saints who came before us, are present here with us, and will continue after us. Thanks be to God!
